

OSCAR Award for Room 9

Mrs Bidewell's class used their recycling skills during art to create some beautiful artwork from discarded paint colour samples. They took time to learn about how to make colour combinations aesthetically pleasing, and used their best composition skills to design some appealing images. They look great on the wall of their classroom and make it a more enjoyable place to work.