

Cloud gazing

Kindy 2 have been investigating the weather and with all the lovely winter weather we have been having, decided to go cloud gazing. Of course, the day we pick to go cloud gazing had beautiful blue skies! Luckily, as the day progressed, clouds eventually started to move overhead.

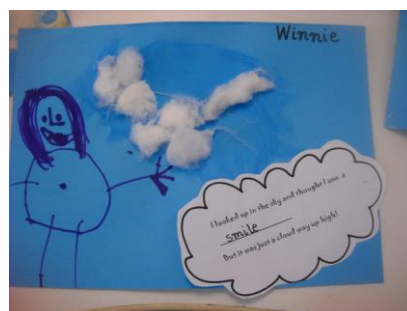

We settled on a blanket, lay down and let our imaginations run with all the amazing cloud shapes we could see. We saw sheep, dinosaurs, cars, smiley faces, birds, no wait, that WAS a real bird!!

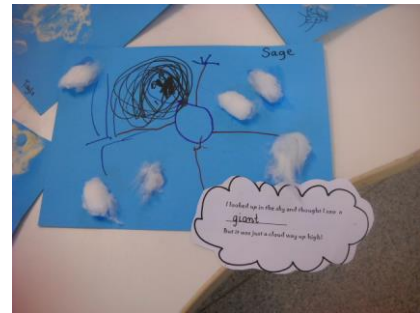

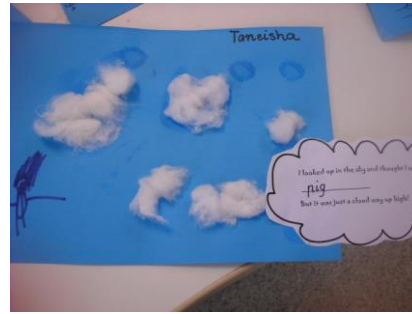

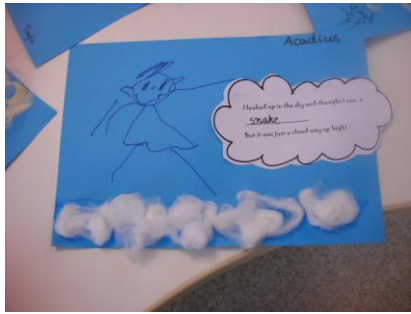

We then tried to recreate clouds at kindy by using puffy paint and cotton wool.

Here are some of our creations:

"I looked up in the sky and thought I saw a.....but it was just a cloud way up high.

We loved cloud gazing!

What can YOU see?
