

Excuses, Dogs and Motocross!

Some of these opinions from our
Room 12 students might just be believable.

My Great Excuses

*I started my homework
But my dog ate it
When I was not looking
And my brother flushed it
Down the toilet to.*

*I got side-tracked
By my older brother Oscar
Playing Halo 5.*

*A plane crashed into
My house my homework
Caught on fire
My pen ran out of ink*

*And I couldn't find another one.
My sister drew on it
My mum sliced it in half
After shaping the knife*

*I have been working on these excuses
But my teacher said you might find it easier to do it in stead*

Why I Don't Do the Dishes

The dishes might smell bad.
The sink is far too tall.
Some dishes are very fragile,
I'm on a chair and I might fall!

I can't see the water because of the bubbles.
The sink might overflow .
There might be a very sharp knife.
The water makes me want to go!

I'm very tired and grumpy.
I don't want to do my dish.
The water is yucky and mucky.
All I want is a fish to grant me a wish.

We ran out of dish washing liquid,
We ran out of gloves.
My friends came over.
Then I decided to chase doves!

MOTORCROSS

1. Getting higher now over the jumps

Win a place in the race

Getting close to the end

I finished the race and got first place.

2. Getting really loud

Getting to the end of the day

Going around the track

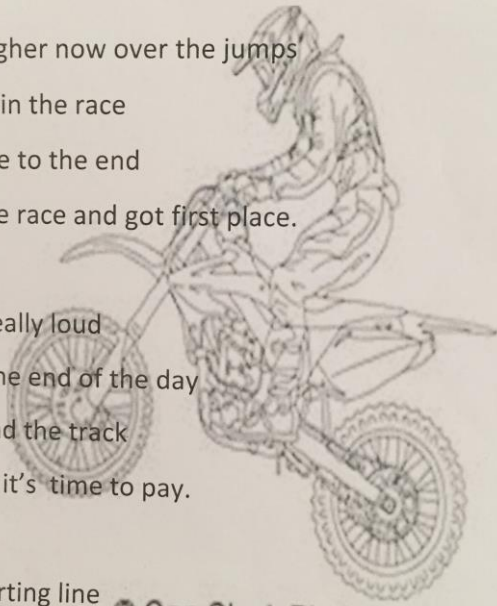

Had fun but it's time to pay.

3. At the starting line

On your mark get set go

At the first corner

Winning the race like a pro

Why own a dog?

Why own a dog?

A dog is loyal and true

A real friend for you

Someone to play with.

They are very cute too.

Why own a dog?

They don't care where they poop

They also chew

They have fleas

They don't wee in the loo.

Why own a dog?

When you come home they don't moan

They don't groan

Dogs are playful

I am glad I have a dog of my very own.

Why own a dog?

They always bark

They can give a fright when it's dark

They eat your food

You have to take them to the park.

I didn't do my homework
Because I was getting held by the FBI

I didn't do my homework
Because my mum put in a pie

I didn't do my homework
Because it got hit by a plane

I didn't do my homework
Because it got hit by a train

I didn't do my homework
Because it got eaten by a chook

I didn't do my homework
Because a pirate ripped it with his hook

I didn't do my homework
Because it got shocked by my Seattleite dish

I didn't do my homework
Because it got eaten by a fish
