Happiness & Sadness

Year 5 & 6 students record their thoughts on opposing emotions.

Happiness
Happiness is when you feel warmth in your heart.
Happiness is when you and your best friend plan a sleepover.
Happiness is when you open the biggest Christmas present.
Happiness is when you have a warm milo and wrapped up in a rug.
Happiness is when you bite into a warm cupcake.

by Savannah Jeffery.

Sadness
Sadness is when you have no where to call home.
Sadness is when you are stuck in your mind-dome.
Sadness is when you go astray.
Sadness is when someone you love passes away.
Sadness is when you have no friends to play with and no family to talk to.

Sadness
Sadness is when you're left behind.
Sadness is an emotion you don't want to have.
Sadness is when you miss out on something you really wanted.
Sadness is when you have no one to sit with at lunch.
Sadness is when you lose a family member.

By Hayley Billitt

Sadness
Sadness is when you're alone and no one likes you.
Sadness is when you get badly hurt and nobody cares.
Sadness is when you drop a cookie into the bottom of the ice.
Sadness is when you drop your phone on the ground and it smashes.
Sadness is when all your money gets stolen.
