

Insects Created in Room 3

During our literature time in Room 3, we read a non-fiction book for a change. We learned some interesting facts about insects, and then we created our own. Each insect has a head, thorax and abdomen and the correct number of legs. Making them was a big challenge but I think you will agree that the results are adorable.

