Our Room 13 students had great fun and heaps of learning in preparing for their assembly. The girls became a formidable group of Suffragettes, while the boys displayed their sporting abilities as Olympians across the years, or as early politicians. They explored the gradual increase in participation of female athletes in the Olympic Games, as a way of demonstrating how women’s rights have slowly been acknowledged.