Written by Owen Clarke

Arnold is an Austrian-American actor, producer, businessman, investor, author, philanthropist, activist politician and former professional bodybuilder. He served two terms as the 38th Governor of California.

Born on the 30th of July, 1947.

He is famous for being in many great movies like: Terminator, The Last Stand, Red Heat and many more.

I like him because he has the best action movie zingers like “I’ll be back” and “Hasta la vista baby”
