The Forensic Incursion

By Owen Clarke and Trent Reeve

On the 1st of June a crime was committed. Joseph Connor was assaulted by a suspected robber. We had some fun finding clues to who did it. We had to figure out what happened. We found out it was a male, then we found out that he was right handed, had blue eyes, had light hair and was tall.

We did an elimination to see who did it. The remaining 5 were lined up as the prime suspects. We eliminated the 4 shortest suspects and was left with Ashtyn. Who was then arrested by me, Owen, and we took a photo together.
“Have fun folks and be safe. Remember crime doesn’t pay.”
